NOTES

Explanation of Challenges for micro environment

Difficult employees

- Difficult employees may have a negative attitude on new employees.
- They need a lot of supervision to complete their tasks satisfactorily.
- Difficult employees can do harm to the enterprise's image if they say negative things about the business.

Lack of vision and mission statement

- Lack of vision and mission statement will hamper meaningful guidance and leadership to employees.
- When there is no mission, the business will lack focus/direction and long term objectives.

Lack of adequate managerial skills

- Lack of adequate managerial skills will result in the business not achieving its' objectives.
- Managers may not be able to provide meaningful guidance and leadership to employees.
- Managers have different styles of managing and leading and this can be the source of enormous conflict with other managers and staff.
- Ineffective management can affect the productivity and profitability of a business.

The impact of unions

- Trade unions may create tension between management and employees.
- Businesses may not be able to meet the demands of the trade unions.
- Once employees have a grievance against their employers relating to remuneration, workers' rights/working conditions, they will declare an industrial dispute.

Strikes and go-slows

- Strikes and go-slows may affect the business negatively as it cannot meet its expected units of production.
- Employees may not report to work due to a complete shutdown strike.
- Employees may report to work but work slowly so that the business cannot meet its targets due to go slows.

Differences between a strike and a go slow

Strike	Go-slow
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Temporary collective refusal of employees to work.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The employees still carry on with their work, but at a much slower pace than normal.</li> </ul>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• A collective, organised cessation of work by employees to force the employers to accept their demands.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The employees aim to disrupt the workplace production.</li> </ul>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Workers will not be fired if they participate in a protected strike</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Workers participating in a go-slow are often punished , sometimes fired</li> </ul>

Skills shortages among employees

- Businesses sometimes find it difficult to find suitable employees with skills and experience.
- Some businesses end up employing workers who are not qualified to do the job.
- Unqualified employees may contribute to bad decision making.

High employee turnover

- Employee turnover means that employees resign from the frequently.
- High employee turnover affects productivity, continuity and the recruitment process.

Employee absenteeism

- Employees' absenteeism reduces productivity and affects profitability negatively.

Activity 1

Micro environment

1.1 Read the scenario below and answer the questions that follow.

Edwin Metals (EM)

EM specialises on the processing of metal. Employees refuse to take orders from the management. This is as a result of the manager lacking managerial skills. Sometimes the machinery is not working for weeks.

1.1.1 Identify THREE components of micro environment in the case study above and support your answer by quoting the challenges from the scenario above. (9)

Use the table below as a guide to answer QUESTION 1.1.1:

Component	Challenge
a)
b) c)

1.1.2 Recommend ONE solution to EACH challenge identified in QUESTION 1.1.1 (6)

Challenges of the Market environment

Competition

- Other businesses which sell similar/ substitute products pose a problem to/threaten the success of a business.
- It is difficult to compete with businesses selling the same products and services in certain countries.
- If a business is not able to match the quality of service/products and the price of it's competitors, it will be in real danger.
- The challenges around competitors can be industry rivalry where businesses aim to sell more than competitors/new entrants with better products/cheaper or better substitutes.
- Businesses could find that they are unable to make sufficient profit when the demand is not high enough to support the supply of the same goods/ services.
- Essential for a business to have a regular supply of all the materials that are inputs in the production process in order to compete favourably.
- Dissatisfied customers can damage the reputation and threaten the future of the business.

Shortage of supply

- Businesses that experience shortage of supply may lose customers as they may buy from other businesses.
- Raw materials may be unavailable when drought cause poor harvest.
- Imported goods may not arrive when the country of origin has transport/political problems.

Changes in consumer behaviour

- A business is dependent on its customers to purchase its products.

- Consumers are influenced by many factors and may be unpredictable in their buying behaviour.
- Consumers' preferences and tastes can change as fashions change and as technology advances.
- Changes in consumer behaviour, spending habits, tastes and preferences present an ongoing challenge to businesses.
- The challenges include keeping up with changes in consumer tastes and demand by doing research, finding ways to influence consumer demand and conducting advertising campaigns/consumer surveys.

Demographics and psychographics

- Consumers' attitudes, interests, opinions and lifestyles determine the characteristics of the consumer.
- It is difficult to determine the demographics/psychographics of the target market because they change frequently.
- The consumer market is diverse in the cultural and social background which has a direct influence on the choices they make.
- The challenges include collecting/interpreting information about the target market and to use the data to develop a marketing strategy.
- The demographics and psychographics can change quickly and businesses need to change just as rapidly if they want to retain their customers.

Socio-cultural factors

- Social-cultural factors describe the common behaviour and attitudes of a particular society.
- As society changes so will the cultural values and practices of individuals.
- Businesses must be aware of change and that they can avoid threats and take advantage of the new opportunities that the change may present.
- Businesses should be aware of social trends and influential campaigns that promote buying.
- The challenge is to gather information about changes and to respond to them by adapting practices to maintain and increase its customer base.

Activity 2

2.1 Read the scenario below and answer the questions that follow.

Elvis Computing (EC)

EC specialises in computers. Customers no longer buy desktops as their customers have developed the culture and trend of travelling. In this way, customers opt to buy laptops. There is a great need for the company to introduce laptops with immediate effect but employees are reluctant to participate.

- 2.1.1 Identify the challenge of market environment faced by EC and support your answer by quoting from the scenario above (3)
- 2.1.2 List other TWO challenges of market environment (2)
- 2.1.3 Differentiate between demographics and psychographics using examples (6)

Challenges of the macro environment

Change in income levels

- Factors such as unemployment/high interest rate can leave consumers with less disposable income.
- Reduction in consumer spending will result in lower profit for businesses.

Political changes

- A change in government can result in political instability and scare away potential investors.
- A business that relies on imported/exported goods may be challenged by government's attitude on duties and tariffs to be imposed.

Contemporary Legislation

- The government has established the National Credit Act and Consumer Protection Act to protect businesses and customers.

Labour restrictions

- The government has passed a number of laws which impose restrictions on businesses' labour practices.
- These restrictions pose a challenge to businesses that have to find the right candidate for the job.
- These restrictions make it a challenge for business to employ suitable people locally and internationally.

Micro lending

- Micro lending is granting of small loans to people who cannot obtain credit from banks.

- Micro-lending puts pressure on businesses since they want to support micro businesses, but they are a big risk as many fail and cannot repay debt.
- Micro-lending puts pressure on businesses since they want to support micro businesses, but they are a big risk as many fail and cannot repay debt.

Globalisation/international challenges

- Globalisation refers to the exchange of products/services/capital and labour across boundaries/countries.
- Local businesses are competing with international businesses for local consumers
- Businesses should be aware of global networks and their effects.
- The overseas migration of skilled labour can result in local skills shortage.
- This means more competition for businesses that are already under pressure to compete locally.
- Some international businesses dump their product lines in South Africa at the price lower than those at which local businesses can afford to sell them.

Social values and demographics

- People's values influence some of their buying behaviour habits as they buy products that they identify with.
- Attitudes towards saving and brand loyalty can impact on consumers' habits.

Socio economic issues

- Businesses are faced with many challenges of poverty, unemployment, inadequate education, skills shortages, crime and HIV and Aids.

Activity 3

3.1. State the challenge of the macro environment as represented in statements below.

3.1.1. Heavy rains and thunderstorm forced some businesses in the area to open an hour later.

3.1.2. Thoko was prosecuted for employing a person under the age of 16.

3.1.3. Edwin wholesalers retrenched some employees due to high tariffs and exchange rates.

3.1.4. The rise in cost of raw material caused the business to relocate to another area. (8)

ADAPTING TO CHALLENGES OF BUSINESS ENVIRONMENT

Assessment:

Activity 1 (Micro Environment)

- 1.1. Outline 3 components of micro environment. (3)

1.2. Read the scenario below and answer the question that follows:

NOSIHLE EGG FARM ( NEF)

Nosihle owns a farm specialising in selling eggs. NEF is currently experiencing a decline in sales .
Some workers always report late at work despite several warnings.

Use the table below as a guide to answer questions

Challenge 1.2.1	Ways to adapt 1.2.2
a)	a)
b)	b)

1.2.1. Quote TWO challenges faced by NEF from the scenario above (2)

1.2.2. Advise NEF on ways to adapt to challenges identifies in Question 1.2.1 above (4)

Terminology

4. AVENUES OF ACQUIRING BUSINESSES

OVERVIEW

- Reasons why entrepreneur may decide to purchase an existing business.
- Advantages, disadvantages and contractual implications of the following business avenues:
  - ❖ Franchising
  - ❖ Outsourcing
  - ❖ Leasing

- The educator groups the learners and presents a scenario to learners on business acquisition.
- Research on the viability and benefits of franchising, outsourcing and leasing

NOTES:

1. The reasons why entrepreneurs may decide to purchase an existing business

- The business is established
- The market research has already been done
- An established customer base exists
- It is easier to secure finance
- Income is guaranteed from day one
- It is an established brand that you are buying

Activity 1

1. Outline the reasons why entrepreneurs may decide to purchase an existing business. (8)

DAY 2: NOTES

Advantages and disadvantages of franchising

Positives/Advantages

- Forms of franchising that are not available to the public are often available to franchisees.
- Purchasing a franchise could be cheaper than starting your own business.
- A business is based on a proven idea and the product/ service are tried and tested.
- Reduced long term financial risk.
- Businesses are able to use a recognised brand name and registered trademark, which helps with advertising and marketing.
- The systems/ operations/ goods and services are well established.
- A franchisee obtains support from the franchisor, which often includes training and/ business advice/ marketing/ legal support.
- There is often access to group support from other franchisees and a network of communication and legal advice.
- Established suppliers give bulk discounts as they form part of a larger group.
- The marketing and advertising costs are shared so they are often lower than for a non-franchised business.

- Management advice is often provided, so it is not necessary to be a business expert

Negatives/Disadvantages

- Acquiring a franchise can be an expensive initial layout
- There are often restrictions in the agreement in terms of how you can run the business.
- Many creative entrepreneurs feel limited as to how much they can grow/ expand their ideas.
- The brand could get a bad reputation through other franchisees.
- A large portion of profits is paid in royalties, and often the franchisors do not deliver on their promises.
- It is often difficult to sell a franchise/ terminate a contract.

Contractual obligations of franchising

- The policies that govern the product or service.
- The training of staff members.
- The royalties or profits owed and method and dates of payment.
- The form of ownership that the franchise will operate under.
- Details of operation that need to be agreed upon.

Activity 3

3. Discuss advantages and disadvantages of the following avenues of acquiring a business:

3.1 Leasing (4)

3.2 Outsourcing (4)

Activity 4

4. Read the scenario below and answer the questions that follow:

BIG CHICKEN (BC)

Big Chicken (BC) is available at different cities in the country. Mr Naidoo, the founder of BC allows new entrepreneurs to start their own businesses using his business name and trademark at a fee.

4.1 Identify the type of business avenue described in the scenario above.

Motivate your answer by quoting from the scenario.

(3)

Use the table below as a guide to answer QUESTION 4.1

Identification of business avenue	Motivation

4.2 Discuss the advantages of the type of business avenue identified in QUESTION 4.1 (4)

4.3 Advise Mr Naidoo on the contractual implications of business avenue mentioned in

QUESTION 4.1 (4)

DAY 3: NOTES

Advantages and disadvantages of outsourcing

Positives/ Advantages

- A company is able to reduce costs as outsourcing can lead to a decrease in staff, remuneration, control and operating costs.
- The business can focus on its vision/ goals and to apply its staff more effectively in its core business.
- Improved access to skilled people as the outsourced work will be done by highly skilled people without the company having to employ them.
- A business has access to resources and equipment for a specific function.
- Fixed cost and overhead costs are lower for the business.
- The production team is often shortened and quality is often improved because specialists are performing the function for the business.

Negatives/ disadvantages

- The loss of management control over the task may affect the quality/ time.
- There may be a lack of personal care/ quality as the business is not personally involved in the execution of the function.
- There are often hidden costs in outsourcing.
- The business relies on the vendor to produce the goods/ services, and non - delivery by a supplier could lead to loss of an unsatisfied client/ financial loss/ frustration.
- Confidential issues could be at risk if the information is given to another company who performs the function that is outsourced.

Positives and negatives of leasing

Positives/ Advantages

- There is no large financial outlay as the cost is spread over a number of months/ years.
- The lessor normally covers the maintenance/ replaces any damaged parts or equipment.
- The assets can be returned to the lessor when it is no longer needed
- There are tax advantages as rental payment are calculated as operating costs and therefore tax deductible.

Disadvantages/ negatives

- The lessee does not own the asset
- The lessor has control over the financial obligation of the lessee.
- Some leases require the lessee to maintain and repair the asset
- A large amount of money is spent on an asset every month, the total of which is a lot more than what the asset is worth.

Contractual obligations of leasing and outsourcing

Outsourcing

- Align the vision and goals of both companies
- Measure the work that is being delivered.
- Build in incentives and penalties.
- Ensure accountability and transparency.
- Negotiate pricing carefully

Leasing

- Names of parties
- Duration of the agreement
- Conditions of renewal
- Any specific conditions for defaults
- Detail of insurance, maintenance and restrictive use, up – front payment and instalments
- Details of the costs
- Teacher should expose learners to the trends that emanated from the COVID 19 pandemic.
Example, some schools were provided with mobile toilets, cleaned by appointed service providers. Some businesses may have outsourced some of the activities due to high absenteeism resulting from the pandemic.

Activity 3

TEAM STAGES AND DYNAMICS

NOTES:

STAGES OF TEAM DEVELOPMENT

Forming

- Individuals gather information and impressions about each other and the scope of the task and how to approach it.
- People focus on being busy with routines, such as team organization e.g. who does what and when to meet each other.

Storming

- Teams go through a period of conflict after formation.
- Different ideas from team members will compete for consideration.
- Team members open up to each other and confront each other's ideas and perspectives.
- Arguments occur and upset the team members.
- Many teams fail during this stage as they are not focused on their task.
- This phase can become destructive for the team and will negatively impact on team performance, if allowed to get out of control.
- This stage is important for the growth of the team.
- Some team members tolerate each other to survive this stage.

Norming

- Team members come to an agreement and reach consensus.
- Roles and responsibilities are clear and accepted.
- Processes, the working style and respect develop amongst members.
- Team members have the ambition to work for the success of the team.
- Conflict may occur, but commitment and unity are strong.

Performing

- Team members are aware of strategies and aims of the team.
- They have direction without interference from the leader.
- Processes and structures are set.
- Leaders delegate and oversee the processes and procedures.
- All members are now competent and able to handle the decision-making process without supervision.
- Differences among members are appreciated and used to enhance the team's performance.

Adjourning

- The focus is on the completion of the task.
- Breaking up the team may be traumatic as team members may find it difficult to perform as individuals once again.
- All tasks need to be completed before the team finally dissolves.

Activity 1

1. Identify the stage of team development which is applicable to EACH of the following statements below:

- 1.1 The stage where the true character of team members starts to show.
- 1.2 During this stage the team members get to know each other.
- 1.3 Team members are motivated and are working together.
- 1.4 At this stage team members are settling down and reconciling.

(8)

The importance of teamwork

- It promotes a sense of achievement and this motivates workers.
- It creates synergy where the sum is greater than the part.
- It could remove constraints from making a person do his work properly.

- Teamwork promotes strong working relationships
- Team work can create healthy competition
- Team members learn from each other
- Teams innovate faster

CONFLICT RESOLUTION

Meaning of conflict

- Clash of opinions or ideas or view points in the workplace.
- Disagreement between two or more parties in the workplace.
- Examples that can cause conflict: A lack of trust or miscommunication or personality clashes or different values.

Causes of conflict in the workplace

- Differences in backgrounds or cultures or values or beliefs or language
- Limited business resources
