QUESTION 4

4.1 Study the article below and answer the questions that follow.

ALGARVE RANKED AMONG EUROPE'S TOP HIKING DESTINATIONS FOR 2026

The Algarve has been ranked as one of Europe's top hiking destinations for 2026, placing third in a poll by Trekking Magazine. It follows Italy's Dolomites and France's Brittany, based on votes from about 35,000 readers.

The recognition is due to the region's strong efforts to promote hiking tourism, its diverse landscapes, mild climate, and authentic experiences. Popular trails like the Via Algarviana and Rota Vicentina attract many visitors.

Tourism officials highlight that hiking supports sustainable development by boosting local economies, especially in less developed areas, while preserving nature and culture. The Algarve is also expanding beyond traditional beach tourism to attract international visitors interested in nature-based experiences.

This achievement reflects collaboration among tourism stakeholders and comes just before the Algarve Walking Season, which promotes tourism outside peak periods.

WTM AFRICA 2026 SEES RECORD GLOBAL PARTICIPATION

The WTM Africa 2026, held at the Cape Town International Convention Centre from 13–15 April 2026, recorded its highest level of international participation. The event attracted 8,000 tourism professionals from 63 countries, highlighting Africa's growing importance in global tourism.

A total of 780 exhibitors from 40 countries, including 43 tourism boards, participated. Over 13,500 business meetings were scheduled, showing a significant increase in tourism trade activity. Many countries attended for the first time, reflecting expanding global interest in African tourism markets.

The event emphasised the importance of relationship building and human interaction in tourism marketing, supported by technology. Industry leaders noted that despite global challenges affecting travel, strong partnerships remain key to growth.

Hosting WTM Africa has a positive impact on Cape Town's economy. The city has over 230 international flights per week, and tourism supports more than 106,000 jobs. The event promotes future bookings, increases international demand, and strengthens South Africa's global tourism brand.
